LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

This is Washington's birthday.

The Dog Actor on the fourth page.

His Majesty leaves to-day for Kau, by the Planter.

A communication from the officers of the Boys' Reading Room has been unavoidably held over till tomorrow.

Mr. J. Marsden of Honokaa returns to-day by the C. R. Bishop with some valuable stock, including a 2.50 pacer.

The house and lot, on the plains, now occupied by Judge McCully, is for sale. Particulars can be ascertained from Mr. S. B. Dole.

The French Colonies can now be represented in the Chamber of Deputies. There has been great excitement at Noumea where four candidates have already come forward for election.

It is necessary for those in need of Window Cornices, Picture Frames or Room Moulding, at very reasonable prices, to call on King Bros., No. 109 King St., bet. Fort and Alameda Sts. 638 1w 2.

A FUND has been started for the establishment of a Retreat for Leper children. The sum of $2,100 has already been promised, and when the amount reaches $10,000 a meeting of subscribers will be held.

One of the pupils at the Royal School on Wednesday, who objected to medical examination, jumped from the upstairs verandah and bolted. A number of the pupils have taken a vacation this week. The worst suspect has been pronounced free from leprosy.

The new bank is making preliminary arrangements for building. Bricks have been carted to the site, but, if they are not more carefully handled than they have been, when the builders commence operations it will be found that about twenty five per cent of the bricks are broken.

A LINE Islander has murdered a Mr. Hulton at Taviuni, Fiji. An Australian paper says "the ferocious savage rushed at his master and stabbed him repeatedly, leaving him disembowelled upon the floor of the hut." Poor "simple and ignorant" savage.

The decision in the appeal in the Madras Case was given yesterday, the judgment of the lower court being upheld by the full bench. A claim of the owners of the Madras for damages against the government will probably be the next step taken in this matter.

The Gazette yesterday gained a victory over the government; the appeal from the decision of the lower court, against the granting of their charter, having been upheld by the full court. Chief Justice Judd dissented from the opinion of his colleagues.

We are small fish in the pool, but we can, and will do Picture Framing, make Cornices, etc., at prices never heard of in this city before. King Bros., 109 King St. 638 1w 2.

A PARENT of a child in a public school wants to know if the medical gentlemen, now conducting the examination of the pupils, wash their knives or lancets, in water, after each time of using, or if they are merely wiped on a dry cloth?

A DISASTROUS fire near Lake Rowan Victoria, has been raging. Fifteen square miles of country have been swept by the flames; a hundred miles of fencing and 300 acres of crops burnt. The losses are estimated at £30,000. Thirty farmers lose all they possessed. Three hundred persons have tried to extinguish the flames.—Australian paper.

THE Honokaa Mill has been turning out 75 tons of sugar a week, with 30 clarifiers a day. The plant came of Mr. W. H. Rickard, taken off this season, has averaged five tons to the acre; that of Mr. Marsden 5½ tons and that of the Honokaa Sugar Co. 6 tons to the acre. The past season has been a most favorable one and prospects are bright.

CRICKETERS Attention. The two British men of war are expected to arrive here next month. There is a certain defeat in connection with the visit of the Swifts which ought to be wiped out. Practise is necessary and it should be regular. Leather trundling will commence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Makiki reserve and will be continued every Saturday. The fate of the cricketering community is at stake, so bestir yourselves.

AN application was made to the Secretary of the Board of Education for a copy of the letter addressed by the Fort Street School teachers, to the Board, on the leprosy subject. The Secretary at once offered it for our perusal but found that it was in the possession of the Premier President, to whom a similar application was made. But alas, this is a mighty mystery that must be concealed, and the document, which belongs to the Education office, is detained, ad interim, in the Foreign office. Possibly it can be produced by order of the legislature with other documents that will be called for.

A FATAL accident occurred at Mr. Richardson's plantation at Waianae on Wednesday evening. A young German boy was sent to catch a horse, which he succeeded in doing. Having only a short rope to hold it with, he mounted the horse, a smaller boy getting up behind him, intending to ride to the plantation. The horse threw them both, the younger boy being unhurt, but the elder one was unfortunately thrown against a fence and his neck was broken. He died immediately. Great regret is felt at the accident, as the boy, who was a bright, intelligent lad was a great favorite on the plantation.

Mr. Tathill, and $1,300 has already been subscribed which will pay for the erection of the building.
